VII. HOMEOWNER RESPONSIBILITY

All areas under the eaves of the homeowner's dwelling are his/her responsibility. The maintenance company may clean the beds of this area, but it is done as a favor to the home owner – not as an obligation. All plantings outside of the eaves of a dwelling are on common grounds, and may be removed and/or changed at the discretion of the Board of Directors, to ensure easy maintenance and the continued good looks of the common grounds. All plantings against a straight wall (no overhang) are on common grounds, and, as above, may be removed and/or changed at the discretion of the Board of Directors. Any alcove in a straight wall is the homeowner's responsibility. Your responsibility means that you must maintain, weed, and trim and clean all areas of your responsibility.

VIII. DEFINITIONS OF TERMS

IX. INFRACTION OF THE RULES

In the event of a rule infraction, the Board of Directors would notify the homeowner that he/she is in violation and has a certain number of days to correct the infractions. If the infraction is not corrected by the date stipulated, the following penalties would apply:

- a. Upon written notice of such violation, the homeowner or invitee will correct the infractions immediately, or a fine of $100.00 per day in accordance with Florida Statutes will be imposed for each day the homeowner or invitee remains in violation. Fines for signs are imposed per sign/per day.
- b. In all instances where legal expenses are incurred by the Association in order to insure compliance with the rules and regulations, documents and by-laws, the unit owner, tenant, or invitee involved will be liable for and will reimburse the Association for such expense.
- c. Fines shall be paid not later than thirty (30) days after notice of the imposition of the penalties.
